

The generalized principle of linearized stability for quasilinear parabolic problems in interpolation spaces

Prof. Dr. Bogdan Matioc, University of Regensburg

We present a stability result for non-isolated equilibria of a broad class of quasilinear parabolic evolution equations in interpolation spaces. The result is established without assuming maximal regularity, is flexible with respect to the choice of interpolation method, and requires only minimal regularity assumptions on the semilinear part.